Dear Mr. [REDACTED],

We have accepted your offer in compromise signed by you on 12/13/2011. The date of acceptance is the date of this letter and our acceptance is subject to the terms on the enclosed Form 656, Offer in Compromise.

We have applied a total of $815.60 as toward your accepted offered amount. The last payment was for $500.60 received on 12/23/2011.

Please note that the conditions of your offer require you to file and pay all required taxes for the tax years or the period of time payments are being made, whichever is longer. This will begin on the date of the offer, which is in the upper right hand corner of this letter.

Additionally, you should remember that the conditions of the offer include that as additional consideration for the offer, you will not receive any refunds or credits that you may be entitled to for 2012 or for earlier tax years. This includes any refund you receive in 2013 for any overpayments you made toward 2012 or toward earlier tax years. These refunds or credits will be applied to your liability, not to your accepted offer. If a Notice of Federal Tax Lien was filed on your account, it will be released when the offer amount is paid in full. If your final payment is by credit or debit card, the Notice of Federal Tax Lien will not be released for up to 120 days from the date of the credit/debit payment.

If you are required to make any payments under this agreement, make your check or money order payable to the United States Treasury and send it to:
